

Who's a prospect?

Ability: Do they have any money to give?

Belief: Do they care about your issues, programs, constituency, etc?

Contact: Do they have a relationship with any of your board members, staff, donors, or key volunteers? Are they already contributing money, time, or both?

If people meet these three criteria, they are PROSPECTS and should be asked to contribute (or perhaps to contribute more).