

Mariah Thompson Bio

Mariah Thompson is a staff attorney with California Rural Legal Assistance, Inc., located in Fresno. Her areas of expertise include environmental, land use, civil rights, housing, and language access law. Mariah provides legal representation to community groups in rural disadvantaged communities as they advocate for the reversal of historic and ongoing discriminatory land use practices, healthy and thriving communities, rural community investment, and equitable access to municipal services. Mariah graduated from the University of Virginia School of Law.