

Craig Tucker, Ph.D., Partner, Lost Coast Wind

Craig Tucker, Ph.D. has worked at the intersection of natural resources, water rights, and tribal self-governance on the North Coast for nearly 20 years. As a staffer for the Karuk Tribe, Craig helped plan and organize the campaign to Un-dam the Kamath and Bring the Salmon Home. Craig also represents Humboldt County in the FERC relicensing for the Potter Valley Project which straddles the Eel and Russian River watersheds. He has a hard-earned, trusted reputation for building bridges between tribes, governmental agencies, and businesses in the community. Craig is also the founder and principal of Suits and Signs Consulting, LLC based in Arcata, CA.