

Dov Kadin, Senior Planner, Sacramento Area Council of Governments

Dov works at the Sacramento Area Council of Governments (SACOG) on land use and housing issues. His projects include the land use modeling for SACOG's long range plan, the regional housing needs allocation, and housing policy technical assistance to local governments. Before SACOG, Dov worked at the Strategy Growth Council, where he managed the Affordable Housing and Sustainable Communities grant program, which allocates State cap and trade funding to affordable housing projects across the State.
