- 61 Thank you Lucas for mentioning "port" communities! Michael Warburton '- 1/26/2023 11:41
- 64 ...and MA had the Great Ponds Ordinance as well and "public squares" have long been protected by the Public Trust Doctrine.... Michael Warburton '- 1/26/2023 11:46
- 69 Carl, thank you for moderating this insightful panel. The example of tribal stakeholders becoming transmission owners was heartening. A challenge that we face for responsible development of offshore wind is transmission. If each project has to build its own interconnection lines, there will be both more environmental impacts and higher costs. Could the panel discuss proposals on this topic?
Faramarz Nabavi '- 1/26/2023 11:53
- 70 YES Lucas! State sovereignty is relevant. Michael Warburton '- 1/26/2023 11:53

- 72 Thank you Craig! Michael Warburton '- 1/26/2023 11:55
- 75 Thank you Craig! It's a capacity inquiry. Michael Warburton '- 1/26/2023 12:03
- 76 ...of course George Bush was building on Prescott's start when he spoke of a "thousand points of light".....We don't have "enough" of a shared vision until developers acknowledge that they are utility "Applicants" and NOT Paramount Owners risking losing anything. Michael Warburton '- 1/26/2023 12:07
- 77 But it's NOT the wild west on a "blank" slate... Michael Warburton '-
1/26/2023 12:08
- 80 "Environmentally accounted for?" Michael Warburton '- 1/26/2023 12:12
- 81 Yes Craig! You're in great form! Michael Warburton '- 1/26/2023 12:12
- 82 ...and freedom is known necessity.... Thanks for this- but the California Public Trust must be acknowledged. Michael Warburton '- 1/26/2023 12:14
