

Fire Chief Jason Weber, Marin County Fire Department

Chief, Jason Weber started his fire service career as an Explorer with the Valley of the Moon Fire District (now Sonoma Valley Fire) he was a Schell-Vista Volunteer firefighter for 20 years and has served the Marin County Fire Department for nearly three decades. Chief Weber has worked in every rank of MCFD and was appointed Fire Chief in 2012. Chief Weber is committed to the next generation of the Fire Service, he was President of the California Fire Exploring Association for 14yrs. Chief Weber serves as the Chair of the CALFIRE Association of Contract Counties, serving on the California Wildfire Coordinating Group (CWCG) for the last 10yrs. Chief Weber was one of the architects of the Marin Wildfire Prevention Authority and a successful campaign that funded the newly created Countywide JPA. Chief Weber in partnership with the Junior College system and local community partners created the FIRE Foundry Program promoting sustainable wage career opportunities for underserved/underfunded community members. Jason lives in Novato with his wife and four kids. You may find him enjoying water sports, coaching his kids sporting teams or in the kitchen cooking.